Pretty Good, Says Wade Stephenson of The Canyon News

Wade Stephenson of Tulia thinks a lot of The Canyon News. He lived here in the far distant past and has been a regular reader of The News since leaving.

Wade was quoted by The Tulia Herald last week as saying: "If you keep improving, you'll soon be as good as The Canyon News."

This is a none too gentle hint that The News had better get busy and be on its toes in the future, or H. M. Baggarly and DeWayne Davis will be catching up with their splendid Tulia Herald.

Competition is growing, growing, growing every week.

Park Paving Is Making Progress Says McCarty

Caliche hard surfacing on the road in the Palo Duro State Park will be completed from Crossing No. 2 to the top of the big hill by quitting time this afternoon.

Traffic in the Park was halted for three days this week while 50 trucks were hauling caliche to the roadbed on the big hill.

As soon as the caliche has been spread and rolled, a coat of oil will be added to hold the road until such a time as hard surfacing may be run for the entire highway.

Work will start at the lower end of the road starting Thursday and caliche spread on the road from the lower end to Crossing No. 2. Caliche on the road from the entrance of the park to the top of the big hill will be the last work done before the topping is run.

The crossings will be of concrete, similar to the crossing to No. 1 and will eliminate the mudholes which now exist on the road.

John McCarty states that plans are being made for the opening of the Treasure Hunt early in May. This will be the largest event of the year, and will attract thousands of people. The number of tourists is growing weekly as the fame of the Palo Duro State Park grows.

Homesteads To Be Exempted If Taxes Rendered

Bill Money, tax assessor, states that he is seeing all of the property owners as rapidly as possible to make certain that they will be given credit for their homestead exemptions on the tax rolls. He is working in Canyon and has two men working in South Amarillo.

However, it is very hard to find all of the property owners at home when he calls. He leaves a red card in their screen doors when they are not found, advising that they must call at his office in order to make sure that they get credit on their homesteads.

The law provides that property must be rendered personally by the owner on or before May 1st in order to secure this exemption.

Money on City Bonds Will Be Received Soon

Money on the $65,000 bond issue which was recently approved by the voters of Canyon will be received in the near future.

The bonds have been sold to an Amarillo firm and will draw 2.55% interest. Had the bonds been voted a month earlier the rate of interest would have been 2 1/4%.

Improvement on the streets, extension of water and sewer lines may be started in the near future because of this bond issue.

Trash Truck To Cut Out Need of Burning Refuse

The city has bought a new trash truck which will greatly facilitate the gathering of disposal, especially around the square.

The truck has a cylinder body, enclosed so that trash will not be scattered after it is collected for hauling to the city's disposal grounds.

In year's past business houses and home owners have been required to burn all of the accumulated trash which would burn in order to save trips to the disposal plant. With this new truck, it is requested that no trash be burned in the business section as it is easier to haul trash away in the new truck, and the danger of fire will be greatly diminished in this section.

Trash cannot be hauled where there is any presence of fire in the trash burners.

Quanah Tribune-Chief Will Leave Democratic Party

If Harry S. Truman is nominated in 1952 by the Democrats, J. A. Koch announced last week in the Quanah Tribune-Chief that he would quit the party and vote for any Republican. Koch says that he is not opposed to Truman for firing MacArthur, but that he has simply had enough of Truman and the kind of men with whom he has indulged into public office.

Harry Koch, father of Anton, and founder of the paper, was a native of Holland. Both were lifelong Democrats, but Anton is opposed to the principles under which Truman operates.

Talk About Low Rates Charged For Advertising

The Canyon News has had two very interesting business callers during the past week. They were advertising men who called to renew contracts which they have had with this paper for several years.

The News wishes to present as nearly as possible their views on advertising:

Said visitor No. 1: "Your advertising rate is entirely too low. It is true that my firm could buy space in the large daily papers, covering a much greater territory, but the daily is not read as carefully as the weekly. We know, because we use both the daily and the weekly."

Said visitor No. 2: "I see that you are charging a little more this year than you charged us last year. Frankly you are entirely too low. I renewed a contract yesterday with a paper which is published in a town only about half the size of Canyon, and the paper is not half as good. The rate there is almost twice that of the rate which you are charging us. The people of Canyon do not realize what a bargain they are getting in advertising with your low rates."

Publisher's reply: "We are holding our rates down simply because we want every firm in Canyon to be in position to use our columns, and not the select few who are able to pay for the higher advertising rates. At the Panhandle Press Association meeting last week-end we found that our rates were entirely too low for the kind of paper we publish, but we will continue to give our people the benefit of low rates so long as possible."

Missing Folks May Not Get Directory Cards

Are you among the missing persons who have phoned The Canyon News that you have not been listed for the new city directory?

Well, we have finally received the cards which you are to fill out and mail to the publishers of the directory.

However, you might do this at once; come to The News office, get a card and mail it in right now.

A representative of the directory firm was here the other day. He said that a recheck had been made of Canyon and he thought most of the folks had been contacted. However, let it be remembered that whole families and a considerable amount of several blocks were missing from the first book published. The mistakes of the first book will be eliminated as far as possible. That is, all people in Canyon will be correctly listed, provided you get busy and send in your correct listing at the present time.

There are so many folks moving around in a college town at the end of each session that the book will not be correct after the end of the college year; but the publishers want the listing correct as of the present time regardless of what may happen in June or September.

W. T. Concert Band To Present Concert Monday Evening

Featuring a guest conductor, a guest soloist and the first performance of a musical composition in this area, the West Texas State Concert Band will present a concert Monday night at 8 o'clock in the Administration Building Auditorium.

Guest conductor will be Houston Bright, assistant professor of music. He will conduct Wallingford Reiger's "Processional," a piece composed in 1943 commemorating the dead of World War II.

Rufi Ann Soll, senior piano student of Canyon, will be guest soloist with the band, playing the "Concerto Americana," a medley of American folk songs arranged by Howard Kaschau.

To be played for the first time in this part of the country will be "Three Sketches for Symphonic Band," a musical composition by Dr. William Presser, head of the college's music department.

Also featured in the concert will be the trumpet trio playing "Annie Laurie a la Moderne," arranged by Leonard. Trio members are Don Craig, Canyon sophomore; John Daymont, Chicago freshman; and Clair Mollenhoff, Waverly, Iowa, sophomore.

M. J. Newman, director of the band, and William O. Latson, assistant director, will conduct the major portion of the concert.

Other numbers included on the program are "New Moon Overture" by Romberg; "Ave Maria" by Schubert; "Comedian's Gallop" by Kabalevsky; "Athletic Festival March" by Prokofieff; "First Swedish Rhapsody" by Leiden and the famous Spanish march, "Amarito Roca."

New Telephone Rates May Be Agreed Upon

O. A. Thomas, district manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., was here Monday night to meet with the City Commission regarding the proposed hike in telephone rates. Thomas had submitted a former proposal for rates. Monday night he submitted another proposal.

The City Commission is preparing a counter proposal which will be submitted to the telephone company for its consideration. No information is available for the proposals made by either side.

Southwestern Bell requested an increase in telephone rates last year before the annual election was held. The former commission did not act upon the proposal, which it deemed too great an increase in telephone rates. The present commission has had several meetings with the company during the past year. It is believed that the proposal submitted by the city commission may be acceptable to the company and that an agreement may be reached within a reasonable time.

Song by Mrs. Foster Wins First Place

Mrs. Lee Foster attended the Seventh District Federation of Women's Clubs Convention in Amarillo last Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday. At that time she was named first place winner in the contest for composers in Seventh District with her song "Veda Our Leader," which was presented to the State President Mrs. J. Howard Hodge at the annual meeting in Fort Worth last November.

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

General MacArthur Still Holds Public Fancy in Spite of Firing

All you need to do is go out on the street and interview citizens of Canyon to realize what a diversified opinion prevails on the case of General Douglas MacArthur.

The General was fired from his job of allied commander at midnight last Wednesday morning. It seems that the President chose this time to announce his decision due to the difference in time between Washington and Toyo. The General was at his meal when the reporters rushed in to tell him the news — according to reports. If this is true, the President used poor judgment in giving the news to the world before he sent word directly to MacArthur that he was fired.

The reaction has been so varied, and since it is not our business to pass hasty judgment, we shall await the arrival of MacArthur back in his home land. By that time information should be pretty well crystallized.

Following the untimely announcement of MacArthur some months ago that his troops would have won the war in Korea and be home by Christmas, there was expressed uneasiness in this nation. It was not long before our troops were being rapidly pushed back to South Korea, and chances are we narrowly escaped defeat.

Since that time MacArthur has taken things in his own hands, so far as the public knows, but has been handicapped by opposition, not only in Washington, but likewise of London and Paris.

His blast at the United Nations, and incidentally the direct hit made on the White House, was the last straw.

No one will argue that a war can be won by continued bickerings within the allied command and the United Nations.

On the other hand no one can uphold the theory that a strong war can be directed by weak leadership. MacArthur is the strong man; Truman is the weak man.

Regardless of how weak or inefficient the President may be, he must have the unquestioned support of those who serve under him. Truman has not had this kind of support from MacArthur, who has lived for 14 years in the East and knows the East much better than the President.

The most regrettable feature of the incident is the attitude of England and France. Here we have two worn out, bankrupt nations telling their benefactor how the Korean War must be run, and demanding the right to continue trading with our enemies for their own benefit.

We sincerely trust that General MacArthur will return to face his critics. He has been invited by the President to leave Japan, and will probably do so. We cannot believe that he would choose to remain at or even near a post from which he has been ousted, and among a people before whom he has been discredited.

For the moment, MacArthur has more friends in America than he has opponents. We are of the opinion that no one really knows which way is the right way out of this mess until a little time passes and we get a long range perspective of the entire situation.

The President made a weak appeal for popular support Wednesday night over the radio. He attempted to explain that this was the only way the war could be fought and won in Korea. Yet he knew all of the time that the war will be fought where Moscow dictates, and not where Truman, London and Paris dictate. We are certain that there is no man in the world more anxious than the President to avert needless bloodshed in Korea, but let it be remembered that the President knows nothing about Korea, except information relayed to him by his "yes" men; and that he had never met General MacArthur until he flew such a great distance to confer with him for one hour. The world has yet to learn what went on in that one hour; and it is likely that the stronger personality exerted itself between the two men, which resulted in the weaker man deciding that he would wear the big pants, regardless of the future welfare of the nation.

The one fact that stands out so clearly in this unfortunate situation is that Moscow won a great victory; again without the loss of a single man.

It's hard to know what's what in Korea; one writer says the Reds are badly beaten and another tells us of orderly retreats and massive reserves.

It might not be a bad idea to televise the proceedings of Congress and let the peoples see and hear what goes on — even in committee meetings.

Lobbyists Trying to Injure Higher Education in Texas

The Canyon News has been distressed at the attitude which prevails in the legislature to do violence to higher education in Texas without regard to future benefits or results. The economy block has sold its program to the law makers, many of whom are willing to wreck any institution, just so they will not be forced to put up more money in taxes for support of the state government.

As a matter of fact, Texas is now putting up a smaller amount of money for public education than most of the states of the union. This is in spite of the great resources of Texas, especially the oil lands which contribute such a large amount annually to the buildings on the campuses of the University and A. & M. College.

The cruel facts are that if you will go down the street — the street of any town in Texas — and ask for a popular poll you will find that a vast majority of our citizens will say that state taxes are too high and that they should be reduced.

This is all the economy block wants — an excuse to reduce spending.

If you would follow up that question and ask where you would have the state reduce its spending there are not a half dozen folks in any town in Texas who will give you an intelligent answer, or even make a suggestion as to where they would eliminate spending. This again plays into the hands of the economy block.

The results are evident. The cry comes to Austin, spread by lobbyists of the big interests, that WE, THE PEOPLE, are demanding that economy prevail, and the best place to start economy is among those terrible money wasters who live off the fat of the state while the poor tax payers struggle to meet their annual payments of the state. This refers, of course, to higher education. The boys who handle this propaganda have a fine set-up, and WE, THE PEOPLE, furnish the ammunition for this propaganda.

At the same time we are told by effective public speakers that Texas is just on the verge of industrialization — provided, of course, that we keep taxes down and do not punish those industries which are just opening in the state. This is the same bunch which a few years ago induced Texas to ship our natural gas to industrial states for the purpose of furnishing cheap fuel so that Texas could not industrialize. We are swallowing all of this propaganda. Let us remember that no industry is coming to Texas unless there is an opportunity here for development and expansion. While taxes COULD discourage industry from coming here, natural resources will bring them here, if they wish to come. Taxes are an overhead which are passed on to the consumer; natural resources are something that we have today, tomorrow and next year, regardless of who may be taking advantage of them.

While sentiment may be stronger in Austin today against higher education than it was a few years ago, we doubt whether it is more effective. We recall the demands of the depression and dust bowl days. Back in 1929-33, the legislature was making the same demands that higher education be curbed in order to make way for industries.

We are still hopeful that sanity will again prevail in Texas. The state needs industries, but industries cannot be operated without an intelligent citizenship, made possible only by good schools and by good colleges.

Senator Connally Willing to Take on All Comers in 1952

Senator Tom Connally announced the other day that he would be a candidate for re-election in 1952. Political opponents have been trying to make a case against Senator Connally, indicating that his 71 years was making him useless to the state.

It has long been reported that Governor Allan Shivers has his eye on the seat of Connally. If Connally was out of the way perhaps Shivers would make a better race than any other Democrat in Texas. New brooms are sometimes better than old ones.

For the time we place our chips on Connally to win regardless of who may run against him.

The life of a politician is a tough one, regardless of which party he may be serving.

BOYCE HOUSE Gives You Texas

Among the most romantic aspects of the cattle industry are the brands and their stories — such brands as the XIT (according to legend, "Ten in Texas" as the land lay in 10 counties — though this is not the real basis of the brand; the ranch manager just wanted a brand that would present difficulties to rustlers who tried to change it); the Running W or Little Snake as the Latin-Americans call the brand of the 970,000-acre King Ranch; the 4 Sixes — there is a story in connection with how the brand came into being, and back of the brand itself is the story of the ranch for which it stands.

How old is the Practice of branding? Hortense Warner Ward, in the Cattleman Magazine, says it goes back to pre-historic days.

It is very probably (she writes) that every food-animal and work-animal that man has domesticated has worn, at some time or another, an identifying mark. Horses, camels, sheep, hogs, goats, cattle — all have been branded with the hot iron. In England, even swans were branded. On the Thames, the marking continued into the 20th century. These marks were notches or nicks on the bills of the birds but, in medieval times, the marking was done with a hot iron.

There was hardly an activity in which man engaged that he did not seek to leave upon it a record of his personal contact. During the Renaissance, when great craftsmen's guilds came into being, every paper-maker had his watermark; each silversmith, his hallmark, and all printers their devices to identify their work. Merchants had guild marks, commonly seen on goods of manufacture and exchange.

In the 13th century, builders placed their identifying marks on buildings they erected. Markings were applied to moveables, such as timbers, implements and stock. In Norway, the branding of timber continues to the present. Logs are tumbled into fiords and floated down to concentration points to be made into lumber. To distinguish one man's logs from another's, they are branded by their owners, as the old-time Texas cowman branded his steers before putting them in with the trail herd.

Sam Rayburn, Speaker of the House, warned of a new war danger after a White House briefing by military officials. Mr. Rayburn was jolted by what he heard. Military officials thought they were describing activities of Russian air forces, submarines and ground troops in the Korean area that were just routine — moves that have become commonplace, if dangerous.

Mr. Truman tipped his hand on a try at a new term for himself when he suggested that members of Congress be limited to 12 years in office. He favors only two terms for Senators and is hardly expected to figure that he should have what would amount to three terms as President for himself.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, Supreme Commander in Japan, is more and more irked by decisions of diplomats that allow an enemy to build up forces in Manchuria, unmolested. The General wants authority to do something about a situation of that kind.

Joseph Stalin has big air and submarine forces set to strike in Korea, presumably if U. N. air forces hit at the build-up of Chinese armies in Manchuria, across the border from Korea.

Grabber Family Are Musicians

GRABBER FAMILY LIVING WEST OF CANYON

The Canyon Association of University Women offers the Frank Grabbers as the seventh in its family hobbies group; the Roger Wheelers, Bill Wilsons, Herschel Jennings, Bill Downings, L. T. Campbells, and Sidney Burgesses have preceded them in this project.

The Grabbers live on a farm about five miles west of Canyon. They have eleven children; seven are at home; one is in a convent in San Antonio; three daughters are married and have their own homes — there are six grandchildren; three girls and three boys.

At home now with their parents are four boys: Edward, Bernard, Eugene, and John; and three girls: Bernice, Leona, and Mary. Florence, one of the married daughters, lives in Alabama. She is not musical; her husband and two children occupy her time. Lillian is now Mrs. Richard Friemel of Umbarger; Margaret is Mrs. Clarence Bertrand, and lives at St. Francis.

The Grabber family is interested in music, and has its own orchestra; they play for community dances at Umbarger and St. Francis.

Mr. Grabber took music lessons from a native Hungarian. He plays the violin and the Vienna, or Bohemian, style accordion, which has a scale like a harp. Mrs. Grabber plays the piano, and studied by herself. Bernice, the youngest daughter, age thirteen, plays the accordion and piano. She sings in the Junior Choir of St. Mary's Church. She does 4-H work. Last summer she was the only grade school youngster in the White Sox softball team; she plays short stop.

Bernard plays the guitar. He takes wood working in school; this year he has made a radio cabinet, and a cedar chest for Leona.

Eugene plays the guitar; he sings in the Senior Choir at St. Mary's Church; he farms with his father. Both Eugene and Bernard were on the rifle team that won third in the state in 1949; at 4-H Club Round-Up at College Station, they were on the State Rifle Team that won first place in 1950. Bernard plans to be on the rifle team this year.

Leona plays the piano and violin; she sings in the Senior Choir of St. Mary's Church. She has done 4-H work. This year she is at home working with her mother.

John plays the accordion. He served in World War II, and now farms for himself.

Mary plays the piano and accordion. She is now a clerk at the Neblett Hospital.

Lillian (Mrs. Richard Friemel) plays the accordion. She did 4-H Club work, and was a Gold Star girl. Margaret (Mrs. Clarence Bertrand) plays the piano.

Theresa, age eighteen, plays the guitar. In September, she entered Incarnate Word Convent in San Antonio. Last summer she played catcher on the White Sox softball team. She also did 4-H Club work and was runner-up Gold Star girl. Eugene, age nine, is the youngest member of the family. He has not learned to play any instrument; at present he is interested in playing ball, and making kites that actually fly.

Mr. and Mrs. Grabber enjoyed music before they were married; they practiced together after their marriage; when the evening work was done and the small children put to bed, they played for their own enjoyment. The children have all studied by themselves, aided by Mr. and Mrs. Grabber.

Mrs. Grabber likes to cook and sew; she makes her own bread and soap. The girls all sew, and are good cooks. The basement at their home has a great many jars of canned food. One deep freezer is practically full, and another is waiting to be filled.

Mr. Grabber, with the help of the boys, built a basement and an addition to the house. The girls did the decorating; the kitchen is particularly attractive in an unusual blue and white. The Grabbers work together; play together; and pray together. They belong to the Catholic Church and go to church together. Each day in their home begins and ends with prayer. They are busy, happy, and prosperous people.

SUPERSONIC ROCKET
The U. S. Air Force expects to put on a new supersonic rocket plane into the air sometime during 1951 which will fly faster and higher than any known aircraft in existence. Known as the X-2, it is a diminutive little plane with wings swept sharply back to help it bore through the air at speeds far greater than that of sound. The X-2, like the X-1 which exceeded the speed of sound (761 miles an hour at sea level) is purely an experimental craft, being too small to carry anything but a pilot and instruments.

FARM PRICES
Farm prices in mid-February, taken as a whole, set a new record of 213 per cent above the 1910-14 average and were 32 per cent higher than a year ago. The bulk of the increase was limited to meat animals. At the same time, the cost of things farmers buy also set a new record during the same period.

A. A. U. W. Approves West Texas State College for Women's Work

Full and final approval of West Texas State College by the American Association of University Women was announced today by Dr. James P. Cornette, college president.

Dr. Cornette made the announcement upon receipt of official notice of approval from Mrs. Anna L. Rose Hawkes, chairman of the AAUW committee on Standards and Recognition, who telegraphed him from the national biennial convention of the association in Atlantic City, N.J.

Approval of West Texas State College makes the institution a full corporate member of the American Association of University Women. This status admits to membership in the Association all women graduates of the college. The approval was for all seven degrees offered by West Texas State.

Approval of West Texas State came as a result of action upon the application for approval which the college submitted to the Association in March of 1950.

In 1926 West Texas State was granted associate membership in the association. From that date women graduates of the institution were eligible only for associate membership in the AAUW. This status continued until December 1948 when the national association abandoned the classification of associate membership.

A preliminary application by the college was submitted in 1949 to the Committee on Standards and Recognition which was approved. The institution was then asked to submit a formal application fully documented with evidence that it qualified by the standards of the association.

The Committee, because of pressure of other business, postponed consideration of this formal application, submitted in March of 1950, until December of the same year. At that time the Committee announced its approval of the application, and in accordance with its procedures made arrangements for one of its members to make an official visit of inspection to the college campus.

The official visit was made March 19 through 21, 1951, by Dr. Anna

Oursler, Professor of Modern Languages, Oklahoma A & M College, and member of the Committee on Standards and Recognition. Satisfied after her examination of the institution that it met the required standards, Dr. Oursler reported favorably to the Committee which met in Chicago March 22, and the Committee recommended approval to the biennial convention of the Association held in Atlantic City April 9.

The AAUW has as its two major objectives the maintenance in colleges and universities of high standards of education and the advancement of the interests of women in education. In accordance with these objectives the Association has set forth four major requirements, all of which West Texas State had to meet to secure approval: 1. The rating of the regional accrediting association; 2. Provisions for general education; 3. Adequate provisions for women students; 4. Professional opportunities for women in higher education.

West Texas State qualified easily on the first standard, having been fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools since 1925. The second requirement was met by the 34 semester hour distribution, common to all curricula, in the three large areas of learning — the humanities, the sciences, and the social sciences.

During her official visit Dr. Oursler laid special emphasis upon the provisions for women students. She was especially impressed, and so freely expressed herself, with the organization of the women's residence halls, with the program of cultural and social development under the direction of the Dean of Women and the provisions for student expression and self-development offered by the Residence Hall Councils and by the Student Senate.

She was most favorably impressed with the health program and with the facilities of the Student Health Center and provisions for hospitalization and medical care of students.

The Committee on Standards signified its particular approval of the percentage of qualified women who are members of the West Texas State College faculty. Most important item to be considered in the fourth requirement was the qualifications of the Dean of Women. Miss Ruth Cross, Dean of Women since 1949, both by her academic training, her experience, and her personality was classified by the Committee as fully meeting this requirement.

Talk on Office of Dean Was Made by Dean Juniper Tues.

Dean Walter Juniper talked Tuesday at the weekly luncheon of the Canyon Rotary Club on the duties of his office in West Texas State.

Not many people know of the responsibilities of the dean's office, and few have a direct knowledge of all that goes on there, stated Mr. Juniper. His office has a number of direct responsibilities which were outlined by the speaker.

All records of each student are kept in the dean's office or under his supervision in the Registrar's office. He has served as Dean only two years and highly praised the records as kept in the past by D. A. Shirley, R. P. Jarrett and L. G. Allen. "The work has been well done in the past and we have no difficulty in finding a complete record of the work of the old students who have been coming back to us under the Gilmer-Aiken law," stated the Dean.

Reports take a great deal of time, with accurate and up-to-the-minute information going to the various agencies. Application has been made for membership in A. A. U. W. The college has been inspected and Dean Juniper believes that a favorable report will be given.

The dean is in an advisory capacity. He must see that a clear statement is made of college work, which is printed in the annual catalog, but seldom read by the students. With the assistance of Dr. A. K. Knott and Dr. J. L. Russell, associate deans, 250 have passed all requirements and will receive their degrees on May 21. This will be the largest class to ever graduate.

Curriculum planning is another duty of the dean. Recommendations are made by the faculty, and these suggestions are cleared through the dean's office.

The training of teachers will always be a function of West Texas State. In order to secure the best type of training, outside teachers from the various public schools are called upon for suggestions.

Administration of the functions of the dean varies with the point of view received. "Before you judge, either the office of the dean, or the acts of your neighbor, get all the facts," stated the dean in closing.

Visitors were: Earl Ethel of Lawton, Okla.; Hugh Clearman and P. G. Collier of Hereford; Tom Cartwright, Marvin J. Paul, A. J. Folley, Dr. J. H. Brown, Dr. Arthur Blum, W. W. Rusk, J. Harry Brown, all of Amarillo.

Bufs Make Show In Final National Cage Statistics

Although not at the top of the conference, the West Texas Bufs made a very favorable showing in the final statistics of the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau. In the final tabulations of the major college teams the Bufs finished number twelve in the percentage of field goals made with the respectable average of 37.6%. The West Texans attempted 1490 field goals and made 560. In the field of free throws the Bufs wound up in twenty-sixth place right behind Arizona University. Out of 619 free throws attempted the Millermen made good on 405 for a percentage of 65.4%. Defensively the Bufs came out number fifty in the top fifty. The average number of points scored against them was 57.2; while the leader of the field, Texas A & M had an average of 44.0 points per game scored against them.

The public is expected soon to discover that some tankers sold at cut prices for the ostensible purpose of helping the education of Chinese students ended up in the hands of supposedly Nationalist Chinese, carrying oil to Communist forces in China who were fighting the Nationalists. In the whole process some prominent Americans made big money.

WT Trumpet Trio Amateur Winners

Winners in the Amateur show last Friday night were Glenda Evans from Tulla and the trumpet trio from West Texas State. Members of the trio are Don Craig, Canyon sophomore; John Daymont, Chicago freshman; and Clair Mollenhoff, Waverly, Iowa, sophomore.

Little Glenda Evans sang and danced Aba Dabba Honeymoon to win in the younger division. The trumpet trio played a new arrangement of "Annie Laurie" to gain top recognition in the senior division.

Judging the show were Miss Pauline Brigham, WT piano teacher; Mrs. R. E. Prichard, head of the Arthur Murray Dance Studio in Amarillo; and Gordon Suits, from radio station KGNC. It was felt throughout the audience that the judges did an excellent job in selecting winners. Al Evans, also from station KGNC, did a fine job acting as master of ceremonies.

Besides presenting new talent, the show was a financial success. Money raised will be used to send delegates to the annual meeting of Texas Interscholastic Press Association at Sul Ross College in Alpine later this month.

Barbara Allen Becomes Bride of Mark Taylor in Memorial Chapel

MR. AND MRS. MARK HILL TAYLOR

Memorial Chapel on the campus of West Texas State was the scene for the marriage of Miss Barbara Ruth Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Lee Allen, 2105 6th Avenue, and Mark Hill Taylor, son of Mr. Carl Taylor and the late Carl Taylor of Crowell, Texas.

Rev. A. L. Shaw of Happy read the double ring service before a stairway of baskets of white gladioli flanked by candelabra around which were entwined fern and lemon leaves.

As a nuptial prelude Mrs. Lee Foster, organist, played "Indian Love Call" by Rudolf Friml, "Because" by D'Hardelot and "Clair de Lune" by Debussy. Introducing the ceremony Betty Jean Graham sang "Always" by Berlin and "With This Ring I Thee Wed" by Harris and Sacco. "To a Wild Rose" by McDowell was soft accompaniment for the exchange of vows. "The Bridal Chorus" by Wagner was used for the processional and "Wedding March" by Mendelssohn for the recessional. "Wedding Prayer" by Dunlap was sung as a benediction.

The ushers, George Blackburn of Canyon and Joe Davis of Abilene, lighted the candles.

Escorted to the altar by her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride was attired in a gown of slipper satin fashioned with a fitted bodice with high neckline and buttoned back which extended below the waistline. The long petal point sleeves extended over the hands. The skirt, fashioned with an apron effect of self material, terminated in a long train. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held with a bonnet of satin and lace with a wreath of orange blossoms which her mother wore on her bridal veil. The bride carried a bouquet of white gladioli and pink sweetheart roses.

Miss Rowena Funston attended the bride as maid of honor, and Miss Leona Mae Foster of Plainview, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. Their floor length gowns of aqua and pink taffeta, respectively, were fashioned with overskirts of sheerest ninon. In the portrait necklines of the torso bodices were an insets of shirred ninon. The bouffant skirts were shirred with taffeta bands highlighting the waistline. Their hats of ruffled net, satin and ribbon matched their dresses. They carried colonial bouquets of sweet peas with streamers of pink and aqua satin ribbon.

Little Linda Lee Allen, sister of the bride, was flower girl. Her dress of white organdy over blue was similar to the bride's dress. She wore a wreath of sweet peas in her hair and carried a basket trimmed with blue ribbon.

Martin McMurray of Amarillo, cousin of the bride, was best man.

Groomsman was Joe Davis of Abilene.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Allen was attired in a navy blue crepe with a yoke of navy lace. She wore navy and pink accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Taylor chose a navy crepe dress trimmed in white. She wore a white hat and a corsage of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McMurray. The bride's bouquet centered the serving table laid with a white cloth. The bride's colors were carried out with pink tapers and punch and white tiered cake, topped with the miniature bride and groom. Miss Ona Mae McMurray presided at the punch bowl while Mrs. Floyd Montgomery served the cake. Mrs. Allen Taylor, sister-in-law of the groom, secured names at the guest register.

For the wedding trip to points in Oklahoma, the bride traveled in a beige suit with navy accessories. Her corsage was of white gladioli and pink roses.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fox and Donald Roy, Bob Bonsal, Loretta Cooper of Pampa, Mrs. Inos Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Taylor and Merida, Jimmy Fox and Mrs. W. F. Marlow of Crowell, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Montgomery of Bovina, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McMurray and Pat of Tucumcari, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Foster and children of Plainview, and Mrs. Martin McMurray of Amarillo.

SUE HITE CLUB OBSERVES FEDERATION DAY WITH TEA

The Sue Hite Club met in the Club Room of the Museum on Monday afternoon, April 9, for a Federation Day Tea with members of the Woman's Book Club as guests. President Mrs. Herschel Coffee presided, and Mrs. Loyd Devin introduced the program.

Special music by the string quartet of West Texas State included a selection by Houston Bright and one by William Presser of the music department. Members of the quartet are Lewis Stoelzing, Herschel Coffee, Dan O'Connor and William Presser.

Because of illness Mrs. Amelia Anthony, founder of Girls Town, U. S. A., was unable to present the program. As the recording of the dedication program by the Murray Bible Class of the Methodist Church was played, Mrs. Leonard Britt displayed the book "In Our Image" which was placed on the Memorial Shelf of the Library in honor of Dr. S. H. Condron.

The tea table was centered with an arrangement of jonquils. Mrs. J. S. Humphreys presided at the silver tea service. Tea, coffee, individual cakes and nuts were served.

Guests present were Mesdames Lee Johnson, Fred Standley, Evetts Haley, Wes Kleinschmidt, Roy Johnson, J. S. Humphreys, C. R. Burrow, R. A. Neblett, James P. Cornette, Ben Beck, C. M. Dowlen and Miss Darthula Walker.

Members present were Mesdames Herschel Coffee, Leonard Britt, Loyd Devin, Dan O'Connor, Elmer Wooten, E. R. Cleavinger, Herschel Jennings, W. F. Haggard, Boone McClure, B. B. Slack, W. E. Miller, Frank Begert, Andy Walsh, Virgil Henson, Perry Bell, Hatcher Brown, Charles E. Wright, Crannell Tolliver, R. A. Busted, Borden Price, Earl Craig, R. E. McCormick, John Jennings, and Robert Jarrett.

The next meeting will be on April 23 at which time Mrs. Crews Henry will review short stories of 1950 and Mrs. Loyd Devin will conduct "Dr. Roberts I. Q."

Pair of Punks to Pay Penalty With Death in Treason

A pair of misguided fools up in New York will pay the penalty of treason with their lives. The punks are the Rosenbergs, man and wife. Their names indicate that they are of foreign extraction.

The trial judge, who pronounced sentence against the pair, pointed to the death of 50,000 Americans in Korea simply because the defendants in the case had given encouragement to Russia by stealing and giving to our enemies the secret of the atomic bomb.

James D. Carey, official, C. I. O.: "The mobilization set-up is still decidedly big business."

FEDERAL SURPLUS

For the second time in three years, the United States will have a balanced budget and the second biggest surplus in history. Fiscal 1951 shows signs of ending June 30 with a surplus approximately $2,700,000,000, an improvement of $5,000,000,000 or more in the budget outlook in less than three months. A flood of tax receipts far greater than expected and lighter than expected expenditures, chiefly due to lagging deliveries on orders for military supplies contributed to the surplus.

SUGGESTION

At the suggestion of Gregg Buckalaw, 8, of Mobile, Alabama, Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson has issued instructions that hereafter all rubber stamps purchased by the Postoffice Department for indorsing letters and parcels to be sent by air will read "air mail," omitting the word "via," which, after all, is entirely unnecessary.

"YOUR NEW '50,000 MILES—NO WEAR' OIL is the best we have ever used," says George M. James, Manager, Metro Motors, Ford Distributors, Murray, Utah. "We use Conoco Super in all our demonstrators and recommend it highly to new car buyers."

"50,000 MILES—NO WEAR!"—PROVED HERE:

After a punishing 50,000-mile road test, with proper crankcase drains and regular care, engines lubricated with new Conoco Super Motor Oil showed no wear of any consequence . . . in fact, an average of less than one one-thousandth inch on cylinders and crankshafts.

AND gasoline mileage for the last 5,000 miles was actually 99.77% as good as for the first 5,000! This test proved that new Conoco Super, with OIL-PLATING, can make your car last longer, perform better, use less gasoline and oil.

Age Span Extended by Medical Science States Physician

Young people getting married in 1951 have much brighter prospects of living healthier, longer lives together than their grandparents had, State Health Officer George W. Cox has optimistically disclosed.

He also said that many health safeguards offered to young people today "assure a better chance of raising their children to healthy adulthood unmarked by disease."

"Constant supervision by health officials keep food, milk, and water supplies pure and wholesome," the health officer asserted, "and communicable disease are controlled better today than ever before through the efforts of an intelligent citizenry, the medical profession, and public health workers."

Children born into today's world are protected by immunizations that were unheard of two generations ago, and the common sense measures that parents take to protect their own health also protect their children, the doctor indicated.

A complete physical examination, including a blood test, before marriage is "part and parcel of better family living," in the mind of Dr. Cox.

"Blood tests are sensible precautions against the possible spread of syphilis. More and more people are displaying their natural intelligence by taking blood tests."

Also part of planned living, he believes, is for every expectant mother to have her blood tested as required by law. This could entirely eliminate congenital syphilis, because the diagnosis would be made early.

"Competent care is all that is necessary to prevent the birth of a syphilitic child. If the mother is found to be infected, and treatment is started at once, it is very likely the child will never be touched by the disease," the health official advised.

International Christian University Is Being Planned

Everyone who wants to see Christian education soundly established in Japan is being called on through the churches during the week beginning April 29 to make a contribution to the building and maintenance fund of the new International Christian University (ICU) at Mitaka, Japan.

ICU is being built and will be supported by Christian denominations in Japan, the United States and Canada. Its primary purpose is to train teachers for positions in Christian schools and colleges and to help provide ably-trained young people for responsible positions in government and in social welfare work. Its faculty will be composed entirely of Christian men and women, about half of whom will be Japanese. Its students will be young men and women from all countries, but predominantly from Japan, who are able to qualify for admission to the 4-year undergraduate college of liberal arts or the graduate schools of education, citizenship, and social work.

The new university is located at Mitaka, about 17 miles from downtown Tokyo, on a 350-acre tract which was purchased with funds contributed by the Japanese people who to date have raised about $450,000 to help found the University. In order to open the university in April 1952, as planned, funds have to be raised this spring to complete the unfinished buildings on the campus which were originally built for war purposes by the Japanese militarists. It is primarily to help turn these "swords into ploughshares" that funds are now being sought at this time.

Contributions may be mailed to: Interdenominational Promotion Committee, Japan International Christian University Foundation, Inc., 44 East 23rd Street, New York 10, New York.

Palo Duro League Bowls in Amarillo Tournament

Over the week-end teams of the Palo Duro Bowling League competed in Amarillo Women's Bowling Tournament held at Peerless Lanes. Ruth Haynes of the Palo Duro Dress team captured 2nd place in the singles division with a 634. First place went to Helen Arnold with a score of 649. In the doubles division Fay Risner, also of Palo Duro Dress, and Ruth Haynes teamed together and placed 5th with 1188.

Monday night when the teams of the Palo Duro Bowling League met,

Canyon Drug dropped two games to Palo Duro Dress Shop but is still tied for first place with The Pharmacy, which took three games from Thompsons. By a close margin Cowboy Cafe won three games from Whiteway Service Station.

Gladys Odom bowled the individual high game with 172; Bert Brown took honors with a 144 average for the three game series. High team honors went to The Pharmacy with 1938 for the three games.

Good Military Plan If Russia Will Only Wait

In one of his recent columns, Robert S. Allen wrote, "Western Europe can be effectively defended against Russian aggression by the North Atlantic pact army that General Dwight D. Eisenhower is creating. Categorical assurances on that have been given by General Omar Bradley. How and why this relatively small force can resist Communist military might was graphically spelled out by the head of the joint chiefs of staff at a closed-door meeting of the Senate foreign relations and armed services committees."

Mr. Allen went on to tell what General Bradley said. The planned Western European army will consist of 60 to 70 divisions, of which six are to be American. On the other side of the fence, according to current military opinion, the Russians have 175 divisions. But, said General Bradley, this does not give the Russians so great a superiority as might be assumed. First of all, some of the Russian force must be deployed outside of Europe. Second, a Russian division, consists of not more than 6,000 men — about one-third the numerical strength of one of ours. Third, we will have a great edge in two weapons on which General Bradley laid special stress — airpower and the A-bomb.

He told the committees, according to Mr. Allen, that "in the discussions about building up effective defenses in Europe nearly everyone but the military seems to overlook the vital fact that General Eisenhower will have the strongest air force in history. He will have at his command the air services of all the Atlantic pact nations. That's a stupendous power . . ."

The matter of air superiority is crucial to the tactical plan which the Western European army will follow. General Bradley emphasized that this army's chief mission will not be to win ground battles, but "to force the Russians to concentrate their troops to such a degree that allied air superiority could be used with great effect against them . . ."

It doesn't take a very large force to impose upon an attacker the necessity to concentrate. The viewpoint that General Bradley expressed is not unanimous by any means. There is a very real fear in many quarters that in the event of war these plans would go awry and that the Western European army would be crushed and dissipated. There is also the fear that Russia will not give the Atlantic pact nations the time needed to build a force of 60 divisions or so. But the Bradley testimony is highly important as a reflection of present thinking on the top military level. It goes without saying that it is in consonance with the views of General Eisenhower and the chiefs of staff.

Aside from all differences of opinion, the Western European spine seems to have stiffened considerably of late. The feeling of hopelessness that characterized much European thinking on the problem of defense against the Russian colossus has certainly abated. Communist power in Western Europe, though it is still a big factor to be reckoned with, has declined to a great extent, according to a number of observers. In the most recent elections, the Communist vote shrank substantially.

General Eisenhower seems to be satisfied that the Atlantic Pact powers will now go ahead with full vigor in building their defenses. This, it may be said, is a considerable personal tribute to the new Supreme Commander. The confidence he always radiates has been contagious in the highest European councils.

There is a god within each human breast. — Ovid.

Prior to the National finals the Buff rodeo squad will enter meets at Hardin-Simmons and Texas Tech.

If political winds blow in 1952 as they're blowing now, Senator Robert Taft, of Ohio, is to be difficult to stop short of the Republican presidential nomination. Senator Taft's chances are related closely to the estimate to be made in June, 1952, of how difficult it will be to defeat the Democrats.

The "Voice of Defense" Reports to Texas

In times like these, when our way of life is threatened, Texans turn to their fastest, most dependable means of communication—and ask—

Is our telephone system prepared to handle its vital role as the 'Voice of Defense'...

Here's part of the answer. There are twice as many telephones serving Texas as there were before World War II. Thousands of miles of long distance circuits have been added. Over 17,000 more telephone men and women are on the job to see this new emergency through—skilled, experienced people, tested and proved in many emergencies.

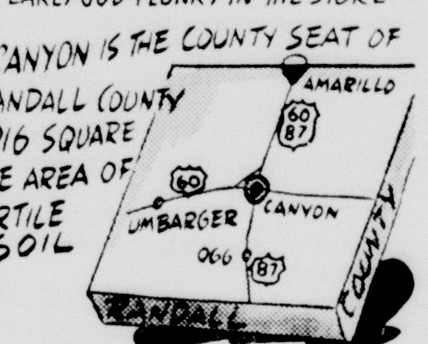

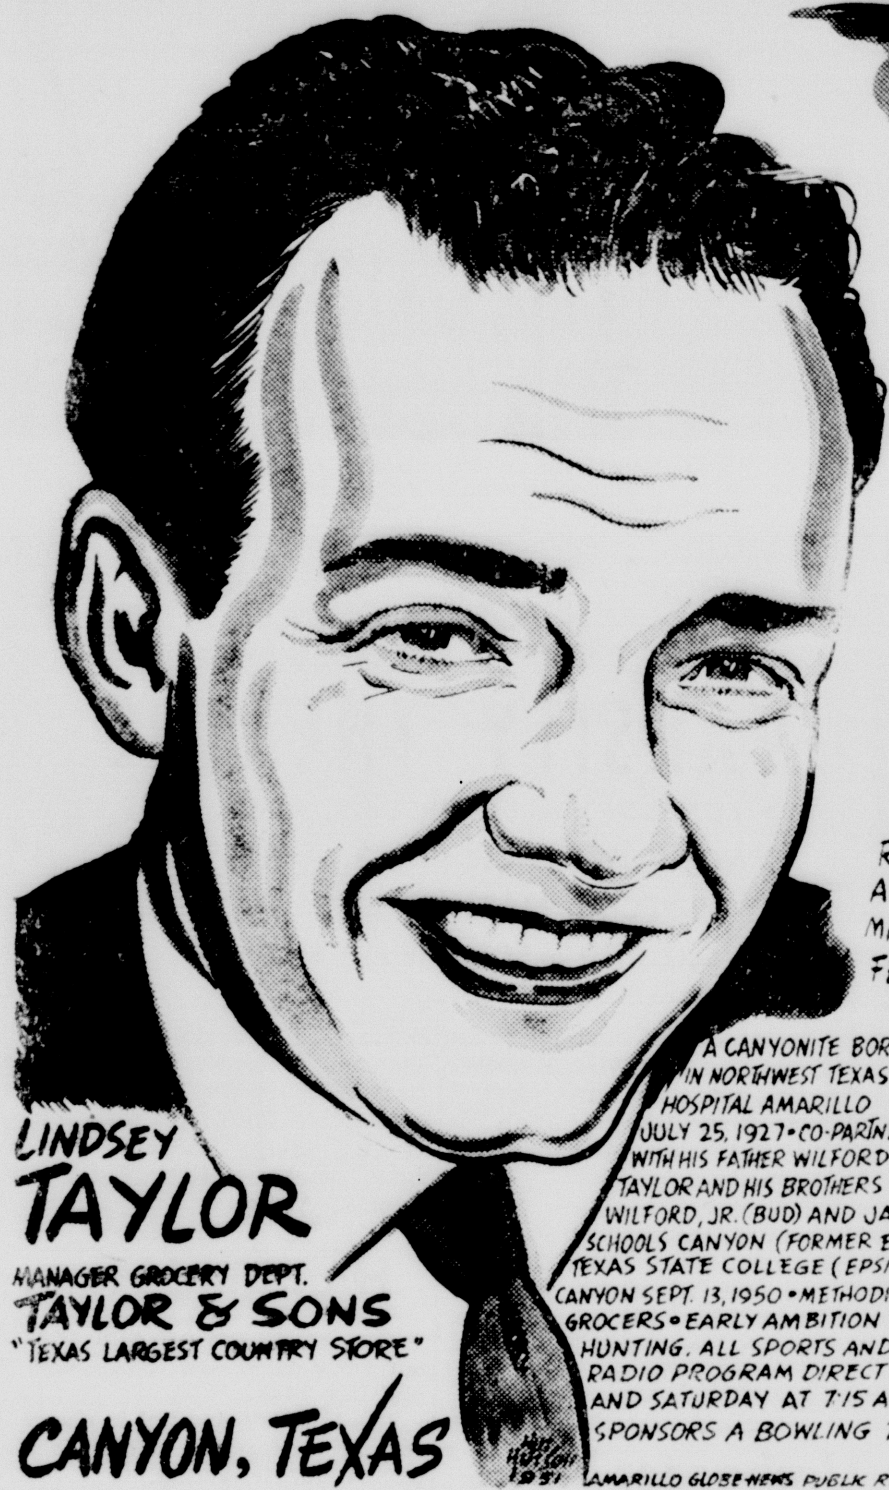

But preparedness means continued growth. We're looking ahead and working ahead to keep telephone service one of Texas' greatest assets in its defense efforts.

Statehouse
by HUGH WILLIAMSON

Even if the two tax bills now being considered in the Legislature are passed, there will still be insufficient revenue to meet the state's expenditures if the present rate is maintained for the next two years.

There are three things that can be done to meet this situation:

1. The Legislature can pass another tax bill to make up the difference.

2. It can whittle expenditures down to the point of income.

3. The Comptroller can revise downward his estimate of tax money required for the next two years. This sum is now estimated at $112 million.

One of the tax bills moving toward final passage is that by Representative James C. Sewell of Blooming Grove. It places a one cent per thousand cubic feet tax on natural gas gathered for sale.

This bill would raise an estimated $28 million per year, and the money would be spent in this way: half for rural roads, one-fourth for public schools, and one-fourth for city streets.

That part going to the cities for streets would not apply to the anticipated need for the general fund. The other three-fourths of the revenue from this bill would apply.

The other tax bill that has advanced is that by Representative Jim Lindsey of Texarkana. It extends a previously-fixed increase of 10 per cent in the taxes on seventeen sources, including oil, gas, and sulphur production, utilities gross receipts, cosmetics and radio sales, motor carrier gross receipts, insurance premiums, cement, liquor and beer, and oil well servicing.

This bill would bring the state about $21,500,000 per year, all of which would go into the general fund.

Another bill was sent to subcommittee, but could not be approved and called up at any time.

This one, by Max Triplett of Hillsboro, increases the tax on gasoline from four to five cents per gallon. The revenue would be distributed the same as that of the Sewell bill — half for rural roads, one-fourth for city streets, and one-fourth for public schools.

This bill would bring in about $27 million per year. Presumably, however, the Legislature would not pass both the Sewell and the Triplett bills.

That being so, the revenue raised from the Lindsey and Sewell bills would put into the general fund about $25 million less than is needed for the next two years. The figure is based on the current situation, but is subject to change.

The extent to which new taxes will be needed, of course, depends on many factors. State expenditures would climb sharply, for example, if the people vote to remove the present $35 million per year ceiling on old age assistance, the needy blind, and dependent children.

This would require a constitutional amendment, and a resolution to submit the question to the people has been passed by the House of Representatives by a vote of 104 to 32.

The resolution must now go to the Senate. If it passes there, the voters will decide the issue on November 13.

Last year, the state paid $35 million and the federal government $67 to pay for a welfare program costing $102 million in Texas.

R. I. P. Took Chances and Had a Nice Funeral

R. I. P. May or may not be your name.

But R. I. P. is dead and had a grand funeral.

His friends gathered around to sympathize with the family. Behind their backs they agree that R. I. P. was a terrible chump. He was a plain young fool. He drove his car too fast.

He took too many chances in heavy traffic, both in the city and on the highways. He even flirted with the idea of beating the train to the crossing.

The story of R. I. P. is graphically told in pictures in a new booklet published by the Travelers Insurance Co., of Hartford, Conn. You can get a copy by request. The pictures are worth your while.

"Serve on Jury" Month Is Set Up by Gov. Shivers

Governor Allan Shivers has set aside the month of May as "Serve on the Jury" month for Texans.

If called for jury service about the first thing all of us do is hunt around for some kind of an excuse for not serving.

During May each and every Texan is urged to accept jury service when called as a patriotic duty toward his state.

Jury service may cause some discomfort and inconvenience to many folks, but after all some one has to do the job.

WHAT ABOUT YOU?

Have you been giving the greatest amount of co-operation possible to your class?

As the classes begin to run through the final whirl of activities for the year, the need for increased co-operation becomes more obvious. In class activities, co-operation sometimes has been meager compared to what it should be and many times just enough to get by.

To make anything go over there needs to be one-hundred per cent of the class putting its time and effort into the activity. In some instances the classes need to have special ones appointed to see that everyone co-operates. There is not time to tarry when school is so nearly out.

Have you been giving your class your co-operation? If you have not, why not? Class activities are everyone's responsibility just as good times are meant for the pleasure of everyone. Whether it be a class party or a class play, give the best you have.

BLACK FRIDAY

In Abe Lincoln's days superstition was everywhere. Besides superstitions, there were sayings of whim and wisdom of bygone days from England, Ireland, and Scotland.

Prevailing among most common beliefs were: potatoes must be planted in the light of the moon; the post of a rail fence would sink in the ground if not set in a certain moon; if, in planting corn you skipped a row, there would be a death in your family; if you killed the first snake you saw in the spring, you would win against your enemy all year. If rheumatism came, skunk grease or red worm oil rubbed on the ache would cure it. Steal a dishrag, hide it under a tree stump, and your wart will go away; feed gunpowder to dogs and it will make them fierce; start on a journey and seeing a white mule will bring bad luck.

Out of the years have come many sayings. Most prevalent: if roosters crow when they go to roost, it is a sign of rain; the first thunder in the spring washes the snakes from their winter sleep; when chickens get on a fence during a rain, it is a sign of clear weather; when the rain gets thick and heavy it is a sign of cold weather; all those are typical of America one hundred years ago. Here in C. H. S., we are reminded of all the little silly superstitions of our present day time, especially when we glance at our calendar and find that today is Friday the 13th.

Overheard among a group of choir students were remarks of the bad luck expected at the contest. Some of the band members were also overheard remarking about how the band banquet would be held on Friday 13.

And most of all, students at C. H. S. are worried about this particular Friday 13, because that is the day for the second six weeks of the second semester to end!

Epitaph

"There I was, minding my business, when out of an orange-colored sky — girls started screaming, jumping, shouting, and running madly down the halls in terror!"

I was just looking for a friend that Thursday afternoon as I scurried down the locker hall and mingled with the milling throng at CHS. Hungry and alone, not one encouraging smile was shown me.

Tortured in solitude I could stand it no longer, and gathering courage I finally ran across the foot of one fair lass. She let out a shriek which spelled my doom, "Mice!" "There's a mouse!" The stampede was on —

Peppard Receives All-Star Honors

"I thought I messed up the whole shabang," stated Mary Mae Peppard when asked if she was surprised upon receiving honors on the all-star cast at Class A, District 1 Interscholastic League one-act play contest which took place at WTSC, March 30.

The Auburn haired, brown eyed senior has been interested in dramatics since the junior play. Although she has no definite plans for a vocation, Mary Mae says that speech and dramatic training will help her in whatever career she chooses. "Your speech represents the real you and your education," says Mary Mae.

Don Iverson, former CHS student, who is now in the Navy, visited the halls of Canyon High last Tuesday. Don has a sixty day leave after being stationed on Guam for a year and a half.

Here's friend Cal back after a hectic Friday the thirteenth week. And I do mean hectic! I've done run into some of the queerest superstitions.

Mr. Jack Barnett says he always throws salt over his left shoulder so he won't get lonesome. When asked why this'd prevent loneliness, he answered back that people follow him around with unsalted sacks o' popcorn.

Another superstition is that if you kin put salt on a bird's tail it'll make him easy to catch. Merle (Kill-joy) Bullard says that "Sure! If you're close enough to put salt on a bird's tail, you're close enough to catch him!"

When asked if he's superstitious, Jim Dodgin said he certainly is. He'll never walk under a cat or le to ladder cross his path.

But me, I shore wuz unlucky! Last Friday! I had a terrible car wreck — it was head-on. I'll never drive on Friday the thirteenth again! (I'm shore the'fack that I was drivin' on the 'lef' side o' the road didn't have nuthin' to do with the accident.)

By a awful mistook, this here poem got itself left out o' my column last week.

Spring has sprung;
 Fall has fell.
 Winter is here,
 And it's colder'n usual.

Weaver Speaks At Band Banquet

Hayden E. Weaver, Amarillo lawyer, spoke to the gathering at the band banquet held Friday night, April 13, in the CHS cafeteria on the value of a home town band.

Supt. E. A. Wooten gave the invocation. Entertainment by a group of Lion Club members followed the invocation. Mrs. A. B. Holt, president of the Band Parents Club gave the welcome and James Miller, band president followed with the response. Supt. Wooten gave the remarks.

Donna Erwin, a former CHS student, entertained with a number of vocal selections.

The table decorations were orchid and yellow. Numerous table candles lighted the banquet.

Approximately seventy band members and guests were present.

Sifert Honored In Assembly

"Why, I am speechless!" exclaimed the surprised Mrs. Tom Sifert in assembly last Thursday. She had just been presented a huge orchid from the choir in appreciation of her work done with the choir.

Three band numbers were presented before the choir program began. A clarinet quartet played "Three Blind Mice." "Meditations" was played by a brass sextet. "Castilla" was vividly played by a trombone quartet.

The choir program consisted of their three contest numbers, "The Forty-Eight Psalm," Catherine Croker; "What Are These?" Francis W. Snow; and "Sweet Betsy From Pike" arranged by Robert Choate.

Future Farmers Select Candidates

Monday, April 9, the FFA had its regular monthly meetings. Ray Burrus was elected candidate for an Area 11 officer, and Donnie Stroup was elected candidate for a State officer. Various committees were appointed to make arrangements for the forthcoming Father and Son banquet.

John Brandt gave an interesting talk to the group on irrigation.

Band Concert Postponed Until?

Because of the illness of band director Herman Demus, the band trip to Tulla has been postponed indefinitely. The CHS band was to journey to Tulla for an exchange assembly Tuesday, April 17.

Mr. Demus had an emergency appendectomy Thursday, April 5; however, Mr. Demus is recovering rapidly and is expected to be back in school soon.

Don Hickman, a former CHS student, visited the third period English IV class and gave an entertaining conception of a young air force recruit's life at Lackland Air Base. Don will be home until he starts to a radar school which will last until Christmas.

Donston says, "tough policy" is needed on profits.

Neblett Reigns In Fiesta Court

"I was very surprised when told that I had won," quoted Dorothy Neblett who was elected Spanish Queen by the Spanish classes in Canyon High School. Dorothy will be one of approximately twenty-five queens to sit in the Court of Queens at the Spanish Fiesta, April 21, at West Texas State College.

Dorothy took some Spanish in grade school, but being a freshman, this is her first high school Spanish. She enjoys taking the course very much.

Dorothy has been Red Cross representative, won second prize in a national Shirley Lee dress contest, and in the seventh grade she was secretary of her class as well as a candidate for Halloween Queen. She is now accompanist for the choir.

Dorothy is undecided as to her career, but she plans to prepare for it at the University of Texas.

Seniors Make Trip Plans

Excitement mounted as the '51 seniors met last Tuesday to make final plans for the annual class trip. The group voted earlier in the year to visit Colorado Springs and Denver. Due to unforeseen circumstances, the seniors will not be able to leave Wednesday, May 9; however, the class decided to venture forth at the fine hour of 12:05 a. m. Thursday, May 10.

A bunch of sleepy but happy seniors will arrive in Colorado Springs bright and early Thursday morn. Events are scheduled for almost every hour. Mr. Ray Schultz, class sponsor, reported there will be plenty of time for sleep between the curfew and getting up time. So if any of you parents have been worried about your little boys and girls, DON'T! There will be plenty of room mothers and sponsors to see after all the class.

Four Ag Boys Place in Show

Four Canyon High FFA boys won honors in the Randall County Dairy Day show held Friday, April 6, in Canyon.

Doyle Bourn was awarded two second place ribbons for two heifers in the sub-junior division.

Raymond Hinders won two first place ribbons on two heifers, one senior and the other sub-junior division.

Larry Prater won first place on his heifer entered in the senior division.

Tommy Middleton placed second with a sub-junior heifer, second with a senior heifer, and third with a sub-junior heifer.

Assembly Given By Junior Chorus

The Junior High School Girls' Chorus, directed by Miss Ada V. Clark, presented a program of songs, sacred and folk, in assembly, Wednesday, April 18.

Numbers presented were: "The Cossack's Song" by Greenbaum; "Spring Breezes," a Swedish folk song; "Keep in the Middle of the Road," a plantation song; "She'll Be Comin' Round the Mountain," a mountain song; "Who Did?" "De Glendy Bunk" by Foster; "Jesus, Sun of Righteousness," by Lindeman; "God Is A Spirit," by Bennett; "The Gaiway Piper," an Irish Air; "Indian Dawn," by Zamecnik; "I Hear the Bees A-Humming," by Zamecnik.

Two hours of splashing, water fights, and perhaps a little swimming were enjoyed by the CHS freshman class on Wednesday, April 11, in the indoor pool at West Texas State College. The party was under the sponsorship of Mr. Lloyd Johnson and Mr. Cecil Briggs.

Walter P. Reuther, president, United Automobile Workers, "The labor movement is bigger than John Lewis or Walter Reuther or Philip Murray or Bill Green."

Audiometry Aids Defective Hearing

Audiometry tests are being given to the students at West Texas Elementary and the Canyon Grade School. These tests started in November, 1950, and will continue through April, 1951.

The purpose of these tests is to find any defect in hearing that may be cured and to give the handicapped student advantages such as placing him to the greatest advantage in the class room and by putting emphasis on visual learning.

The tests are given first as a group test, twenty students at a time. Those failing this test are then given the "sweep test." There is an interval of two or three weeks between tests to determine accurate results. Since the beginning of the tests, twenty-one students have been referred to doctors for examination.

Mrs. Gladys Dixon, the instructor, took the course in audiometry last spring when George W. Cox, M. D., who is a state health officer, and Mr. Ernest H. Ralston, health education consultant, both from Austin, gave the course to area teachers.

Choir Rates 2nd, 3rd At Festival

Eagle Tracksters Capture Third

Canyon Eagle track team members brought home 28½-point third place honors from the White Deer school-boy cinder meet held Saturday, April 14. First and second place spots went to Phillips and White Deer, respectively.

Bob Ratliff sparked the team by winning the 220-yard dash event and galloping away with second place in the 100-yard sprint. Bob's time in the former was 20.5; Bob Busted won third in the same event.

Other high-pointers were Ray Burrus and Harrell Slack. Burrus took top honors in the discus throw, and captured second and third in shot put and high jump events, respectively. Burrus's distance in the discus throw was 147 feet 5 inches. Third in broad jump went to Slack, who lost out to James Reddick; Slack leaped 19 feet 4 inches.

The 440-yard relay team, composed of Robert McClendon, Ratliff, Busted, and Slack, garnered ultimate honors in that event; the team's time was :46.5.

Fiesta Expected To Draw 1500

An all-time attendance of 1500 is expected at the third annual Pan-American Fiesta to be held at West Texas State College, April 21. Morning registration will be in the Administration Building near the main entrance.

Featured will be a representation of a typical Mexican market in the Women's gymnasium of the Administration Building. Possibilities for booths operated by participating schools will be puppet shows, roving vendors, and cascarones. The latter are hollow egg shells with confetti which the Spanish and Mexican people throw at each other during holiday time.

Awards for essays written in Spanish by students taking Spanish in junior and senior high schools will be presented.

A Queen from each school or college attending will be presented in a Court of Queens at the beginning of the morning session and again before the afternoon program. The Pan-American Quiz Kids will be the feature of the morning program, and J. B. Linn will be guest Master of Ceremonies. The consul from Mexico will ask several of the questions. The quiz will pertain to Latin American history, literature, and geography, and Latin American music. The show will be recorded and rebroadcast over KGNC at 3 o'clock p. m., Sunday, April 22.

The pageant, "At the Sacred Well," by Margaret MacDiarmid Ritchey and Mabel Hubbard Johnson, will honor the queens at 2:15 p. m. in the Education Building auditorium.

The story is based on the Mayan legend about the rain god Chac. The ancient city of Chicken Itza on the peninsula of Yucatan contains a great ceremonial well, where more than five hundred years ago, the Mayan people made their living sacrifices.

Direction will be by WTSC speech students Mary Jo French of Borger and Mary Childress of Canyon, and Miss Marilyn Alice Payne of Canyon High School. Production staff is: lighting, Jerry Williams; special effects, Bill Brooks, Mary Jo French, Mary Childress; make-up, Barbara Gauthier. The set will be constructed by college students.

The cast is composed of high school and college students. CHS Spanish students in the cast are: Dick Dawdy, Virgil Martin, James Joyner, A. C. Wimbler, Willie Mac Weaver, Jerry Downing, Jerry Martin, Hugh Greiner, Charles Boling, Alan Ray Hawkins, Bob Wilkinson, Joe White, Anna Lou Samuelson, May Montgomery, Bettie Jean Hancock, and Nancy Bolton.

Jennings-Black Vows Solemnized in Memorial Chapel Thursday

MR. AND MRS. BOB BLACK

In an informal ceremony on Thursday evening, April 12, Mary Elizabeth Jennings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Jennings, became the bride of Bob Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Black.

Grandparents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Slack and the late Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jennings, pioneer families of Randall County. The groom is the grandson of Mrs. Henry Bradford and the late Henry Bradford and of pioneers Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Black.

Rev. W. T. Wilbanks, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, read the double-ring service in Memorial Chapel on West Texas State College Campus. Vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and cathedral tapers in branched candelabra, backed by jade palms.

While the guests assembled, Mrs. Glenn Dowlen, organist, played "Intermezzo" by Mascagniz and "Berceuse" by Godard. "I Love You Truly" by Bond was played while Miss Florence Marie Coffee and Miss June Jennings lighted the candles. Mrs. C. L. Wagner of Amarillo sang "O Promise" and "At Dawning." The traditional wedding marches were used, and "The Lord's Prayer" formed a soft accompaniment for the exchange of vows.

Attending her sister as maid-of-honor, Miss Jimmie Jennings wore a powder blue gabardine suit with tuffee accessories. She carried a nosegay of white irises.

Best man was Louis Henders and ushers were Bob Dowd and Lindsey Taylor.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a royal blue suit, a Panama picture hat and natural accessories. For something borrowed, she carried a bridal handkerchief; for something old she wore a gold bracelet which her grandmother Jennings wore at her wedding. Her bridal bouquet was a nosegay of gardenias and stephanotis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Jennings wore a grey crepe, street length dress with black accessories and a corsage of orchid gladiolias. Mrs. Black, mother of the bridegroom, wore a rose beige dress with brown accessories and a corsage of pink gladiolias.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party was honored with an informal reception in the home of the bride's parents. Laid with a white linen cloth, the serving table was appointed in silver and crystal and centered with a bouquet of white irises. Miss Pearl Black and Mrs. Warren Lockhart presided at the serving table. Miss Janie Jennings registered the guests.

Other members of the house party were Mrs. Louis Henders, Mrs. George Grogan, Mrs. Herschel Coffee, Mrs. Louie Bonds, Mrs. C. E. Thompson and Mrs. Dale Williams.

Mrs. Black was graduated from Canyon High School. She is a student at West Texas State College. Mr. Black was graduated from Canyon High School, attended West Texas State College and Texas Technological College, Lubbock. He is employed at the First National Bank.

The rehearsal dinner, honoring the bride party was given by Mrs. W. C. Black and Miss Pearl Black on Wednesday evening in the Black home. An arrangement of white stock and candytuft centered the serving table.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. H. C. Freeman and Jackie of White Deer; Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Cleveland, Lon Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Lon Davis Jr. of Floydada; Mrs. Warren Lockhart and Mrs. Dale Williams of San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Slack and family of Archer City; Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Slack and daughters of Tucumcari, N. M.; Mr. and Mrs. George Grogan, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dunnagan, and Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Oliver of Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. Louie Bonds and daughters of Tulsa.

"NOT EVERY"

"A week after their wedding they were throwing crockery at each other," said a landlady in court recently. It is not every couple that settles down to married life so quickly.

Military services are getting more men than they need under present ceilings on armed strength. That accounts for their readiness to agree to plans to defer youths so that they can get more of a college education.

ANCIENT people thought of the mind of the child as a blank paper or a slate on which parents and neighbors would write what they pleased. There was truth in that figure. Our words and our deeds are forever leaving their marks upon the plastic brain of the child in the midst. Perhaps we would prefer the figure of the moving picture camera. Through the eyes and through the ears, the growing child is recording the scenes and the sounds of the world in which he dwells. Many years hence the picture will flash again before the memory of the man who was once that child. Words spoken in carelessness will leap into speech and the very tones of our voice will be repeated. Innocence and eagerness to learn make the child the ready imitator of that person of whom he thinks well. His conscience, as well as his understanding is learned from us older folk who make up his world of experience. What we are and what we do will speak louder, or will make a deeper impression upon the growing life than will the so-called lessons that teachers seek to impart in the classroom. The world is the classroom and all of us are the teachers. What lessons are we teaching these all-seeing eyes of the child among us?

THE thoughts of a child are long thoughts; they become part of a personality which goes on for years, and perhaps centuries. If we are teaching immortal souls in the school of the every day, then how important is each and every day! We are all responsible for the child who must take his place in the work-a-day world of tomorrow. Perhaps we ought to say he is the child of God and He holds us all responsible for the lessons we are teaching His little child from day to day.

Pork, Pork, Pork in Every Branch of U. S. A. Government

Memories are short, and facts and figures are easily forgotten. The chances are that most Americans have only a hazy idea of just how much the cost of their government has risen in the past 10 years. So some figures compiled by the National Small Business Association should come as a high-voltage shock.

In 1940, it cost a little more than $75,000,000 to run the Department of Commerce — in 1950 the bill was $863,000,000.

In 1940, the Department of the Interior lived on a budget of about $1,385,000. Last year's bill was close to $568,500,000.

In 1940, the State Department worried along on less than $21,000,000. In 1950 it managed to get rid of more than $361,000,000.

In 1940, the taxpayers supported the Department of Labor to the tune of some $18,500,000. Last year the assessment was $257,000,000.

In 1940, it must be remembered, the late President Roosevelt had been in office for two terms, and the government had been greatly expanded. Yet now the cost of running the major departments make the 1940 budgets look like peanuts!

The Evening Outlook, of Santa Monica, California, hit the nail on the head when, after listing these figures, it said: "If the American people have any political intelligence or any sense of their own self-interest, they will demand an end to the colossal extravagance of the Federal government that is threatening to bankrupt this country. . . . The demand must grow in volume and insistence until it will finally be heard by those legislators and bureaucrats who hitherto have had their ears stopped up with pork."

WHAT A LIFE!

Mother had her numerous offspring out shopping, and as they waited for a bus she began to tell them a story to keep the peace.

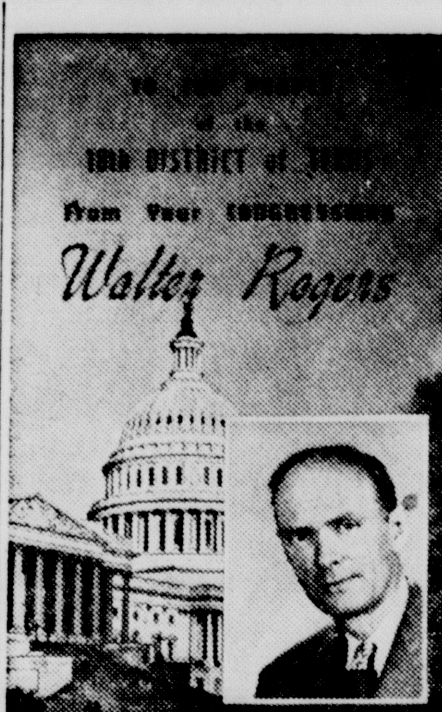

"One time I was in the middle of the jungle," she said warily, "and I looked up to see a tiger only a few feet away. I tried to run, but with a bound it was on me and I was struck down dead."

"But it couldn't have. You're still living," protested several of the children.

A weary glance swept the family as mother closed her eyes and replied, "You call this living?"

QUITE SO!

President Conant proposes a degree after three years in college. And no juniors, we wager, will object to that.

IMPEACHMENT OF THE PRESIDENT

My office has received approximately 100 telegrams signed by approximately 150 people. I have also received approximately 100 letters and about 15 personal telephone calls concerning the action of the President in relieving General MacArthur of his command. Out of all these communications there were approximately five that approved the action of the President. Almost all the others demanded the impeachment of the President, Dean Acheson and various other civil officers. These communications came from the 18th District. I had other communications from outside the District totalling approximately fifty. These were divided in approximately the same ratio. The offices of other congressmen have also been flooded by these communications, most of them expressing heated disapproval of the President's action in this respect. This overwhelming expression of the sentiment of the people affords an excellent opportunity for any man in public office to play politics and to appeal to the aroused emotions of the people. Many have succumbed to this temptation and are attempting to use this serious situation as a political football. This I cannot conscientiously do, as indignant as I might feel about the action and as aroused as my emotions might be under the circumstances. If there was ever a time in the history of this country when cool, calm and collected deliberation was needed in the Congress, it is now. I sincerely regret that the action was taken and I pray to God that our position and our way of life will not be jeopardized by it. General MacArthur is an outstanding military genius. This no one can deny, not even the President. He was a military official, and under the Constitution and laws of our Government, he was and is subject to the orders of the civilian officials. However erroneous, however unsound or mistaken those orders might be, they are not grounds for impeachment. The American people are entitled to know the truth as it is written in the law and the Constitution. The provision of the Constitution providing for the impeachment of the President, Vice-President and other civil officers, Article II, Section 4, is as follows: "The President, Vice-President and all civil officers of the United States shall be removed from office on impeachment for a conviction of treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors."

The order of the President relieving MacArthur of his command was within his constitutional powers, and cannot, standing alone, constitute grounds for impeachment under the Constitution. If the President of the United States, or any other civil officer, is guilty of any act that comes within the provisions of the above quoted Section of the Constitution, impeachment proceedings should be instituted without delay and prosecuted forthwith. I can tell you that every act of the President of the United States since his induction into office has been thoroughly and searching examined in an effort to discover grounds upon which impeachment proceedings could be instituted, and the same is true of Dean Acheson and the other public officials in the Administration. There is no doubt that such proceedings would have been instituted long ago had any evidence been uncovered that would meet the requirements of the Constitution. If there is a citizen of the United States anywhere who has any evidence upon which a public official could be impeached, it is his bounden duty as an American citizen to come forward with it and let the law take its course, let the chips fall where they may. At any time such information or evidence comes into my hands or to my knowledge I will consider it an honor to institute impeachment proceedings against the offending party, whether he be the President of the United States, or the lowest public official in our Government, regardless of his party affiliations. I have discussed the matter at length with members of both parties who have been in Congress for the past seven years and who have done a great deal of work on this subject, and not one of them has furnished me with any evidence of any facts of this nature that would come within the purview of the Constitution, and they have stated to me that it is their opinion that the facts they have uncovered would not be sufficient upon which to base such a course of proceedings.

I shall cast my vote for a resolution inviting General MacArthur to appear before a joint meeting of congress, and will look forward to hearing a full discussion of his views. The Congress is entitled to this and the American people are entitled to it. This is no time for partisan politics. We are at the cross-roads, and the issue is clearly cut. It is Americanism versus Communism.

GUARDING HER LUCK
Just outside the domestic science classroom, the pretty young student paused to pick up a rusty pin. Whereupon her teacher, who had been walking behind her, exclaimed: "My goodness! You don't believe in such silly superstitions as that, do you?"

"I'm afraid I do," the girl replied. And then, glimpsing an expression of horror on her instructor's face, she added reassuringly:

"But you don't need to worry, Miss Wilson. I always sterilize them when I get home!"
